

Cecil Friends of the Montour Trail

9th Annual Walk (Rain or Shine)
Saturday, June 1 2013 from 8:30 to 12:00

Bring your four-legged friend to the Kurnick Plot (National) Access area on Cecil Henderson Road in Cecil Township for a 5K Fun walk that benefits restoration of the National Tunnel and maintenance of the Cecil Section of the Montour Trail. Come early and have a professional portrait taken of your dog by Candace Verduce Photography.

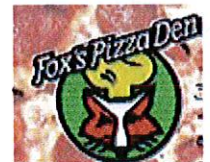

Each four-legged participant's master that registers before May 20 will receive a packet containing trail and pet information as well as treats and prizes. The first 100 dogs registered will be assured of receiving a premium.

There will be a Canine CPR Demo by Donna Duncan, and the Montour Railroad Historical Society will have a display. Complimentary refreshments will be available for both two-legged and four-legged participants. There will be a 50-50 raffle, Chinese Auction, fantastic door prizes including gift cards for local eateries and health clubs, and a selection of vendors offering personal and pet related items. You must have a registered dog to participate in the auction and raffle. An overnight stay and breakfast will be available at the Marriott Pittsburgh City Center Downtown in the Chinese Auction.

Registration before May 20 is $10 per dog, two dogs is $16. Registration after May 20 until the event is $12 per dog. This event has been organized by the Cecil Friends and is part of the National Trails Day celebration.

Pre-registered packet pick-up and registration will be available on Friday, May 31 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Kurnick Plot and from 8:30 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. Saturday, June 1. The walk starts promptly at 9:00 a.m.
